ORDER:-

In the letter first read above, the Vice Chairman, Kakatiya Urban Development Authority, Warangal has reported that, the Govt. have sanctioned Master Plan for Warangal City in the year 1971 in which 200 feet bye-pass road is proposed from Hyderabad Road to Khammam Road connecting Karimnagar Mulug and Narsampet Roads and accordingly, the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) has taken up formation of 200 feet bye-pass road from Hyderabad Road to connect Mulug Road bye-passing the Warangal City to a length of (27) Kms with their funds. Further, Kakatiya Urban Development Authority (KUDA) has proposed to form the balance portion of 200 feet bye-pass road to a length of 13 Kms. from Khammam Road to Mulug Road connecting Narsampet Road while acquiring the lands under L.A. Act. and requested the Government to accord permission for formation of 200 feet Bye-pass road from Khammam road to connect Mulug road to a length of (13) Kms. with Advisory Committee and financial assistance to Kakatiya Urban Development Authority (KUDA), Warangal.

2. Government after examining the proposal have decided to accord administrative sanction for formation of 200 feet Master Plan Bye-pass Road from Khammam Road to Mulug Road connecting Narasampet Road to a length of (13) Kms. with their own funds and to direct the Vice Chairman, Kakatiya Urban Development Authority to constitute a Committee at his level with the officers from Kakatiya Urban Development Authority (KUDA) and representatives from National Institute of Technology (NIT) and the Revenue Department to resolve the alignment issues etc.

3. Accordingly, Govt. hereby accord administrative sanction for formation of 200 feet Master Plan Bye-pass Road from Khammam Road to Mulug Road connecting Narasampet Road to a length of (13) Kms. with their own funds and also direct the Vice Chairman, Kakatiya Urban Development Authority to constitute a Committee at his level with the officers from Kakatiya Urban Development Authority (KUDA) and representatives from National Institute of Technology (NIT) and the Revenue Department to resolve the alignment issues etc.

4. The Vice Chairman, Kakatiya Urban Development Authority, Warangal shall take further necessary action in the matter.
